

Alysha Satsuki Girard

May 20, 1995 - May 7, 2022

Alysha Satsuki Girard gained her angel wings on May 7, 2022. Alysha was born on May 20, 1995, in Altamonte Springs, FL. She has lived in Tallahassee for the past 9 years.

Alysha was known by those that loved her and knew her best as a kind, caring, generous and loving soul. Alysha was such a sweetheart; all of her family and friends adored her spirit. Some of her passions are a love for Horses, Dogs, Jeeping, Sunsets, Plants, and being with her friends. Alysha always had a way to make others feel warm, welcome, and loved. Alysha's departure from this world leaves an enormous hole in the heart of the those she touched in her life. Alysha was always entertaining everyone with her charismatic stories and fun-loving personality, she was the life of the party.

Alysha graduated from Winter Springs High School in 2013 and continued to follow her big sister Natasha to Tallahassee where she blossomed into a confident beautiful, loving strong woman that God intended her to be.

Alysha is survived by her loving parents, Dax and Kayoko Girard, her best friend and sister Natasha Girard, her paternal grandmother Marion Stewart, maternal grandmother Kinue Sake, aunts, uncles and cousins in both NY and Japan.

We please ask for bright, vibrant colors, casual wear for the service in memory of Alysha's outgoing, bubbly, loving personality.

Services for Alysha are being held on Saturday, May 14, 2022 at 3:00 PM. The family will receive friends for a visitation before the service, at 2:00 PM. Following the Celebration of Life, please stay for food and refreshments with the Family. The location for the Celebration of Alysha's life will be at:
