

Angela Margaret Berkowitz

October 21, 1956 - April 17, 2025

Angela Margaret Berkowitz, aged 68, passed away peacefully on April 17, 2025 in Tallahassee, Florida. She was born on October 21, 1956, in a village called Shrewton in Wiltshire, England. Angela led a remarkable life filled with dedication and service to our country. She lived a life marked by dedication, service, and quiet joys.

Ms. Angie served her country honorably in the United States Air Force for four years achieving the rank of Sergeant before embarking on a meaningful career as a Surgical Service Specialist. She received numerous awards and decorations, including the Training Ribbon, Longevity Service Award, Outstanding Unit Award, Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster medal and a Good Conduct Medal for her exceptional contributions. Her work reflected her commitment to helping others and her steady presence brought comfort to many during their most vulnerable moments. Following her service she graduated from Mansfield University in Pennsylvania and became a Police Officer. She then concluded her career as a Surgical Nurse at Tallahassee Outpatient Surgery Center.

Ms. Angie found happiness in life's simple pleasures. She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and reading—pastimes that spoke to her thoughtful nature and love of words. She also cherished outings to Beef O Brady's and Olive Garden, where she could relax and enjoy good food and company. Getting her hair done was another small joy that brought her delight.

She is lovingly remembered by her mother, Gloria O'Conner; her brothers, Tim O'Conner and Michael O'Conner; and all those whose lives were touched by her kindness and strength. She was preceded in death by her father, Tim O'Conner, and her son, Homer Berkowitz.

Mrs. Berkowitz is under the care of Jackie Fulford and James Sircy of Young Fulford Funeral Home, Tallahassee, Florida. 850.610.4444
