I don't have a specific memory of Robyn I can share, she and I didn't have a close relationship. We had casual conversations in high school when we had classes together or our paths crossed in the hallways. But I do remember she was one hell of an athlete, she played basketball. She was also very intelligent, got good grades. And she was pleasant is what I remember the most. Never had a bad word to say to me when we spoke. She has passed on way too soon, but that's never really in our control. We go 'home' when we're called by our maker. And it will be beautiful there. God speed, Robyn.
