“ I met Brenda when we went to School together in Atlanta in 1970. She returned to Tallahassee with myself my other lifelong friend Virginia. She was my roommate and has been my lifelong friend. In talking to Brenda in the last days she mentioned to me that when she passed she would like people to donate to St. Jude in lieu of Flowers. It was a beautiful thought. I will always remember her for her sweetness and grace. Love you girl.

“ When i was a young boy, my father always took my brothers and I to the barbershop for haircuts, I hated every minute of it, I wanted longer hair and a stylish cut. When I was around 11 or 12, my mom took me to the beauty shop and Brenda cut my hair and was so nice, witty and caring, I loved going to her, today I have been in the hair business over 42 yrs and will never forget Brenda as the hair stylist that changed my life, RIP Brenda, my sincere condolences to her family
