

Calington "Cal" Gage Hubmann

August 8, 2003 - June 7, 2020

Calington "Cal" Gage Hubmann, 16, was born to Brian and Monica Hubmann on August 8, 2003, at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital. He died unexpectedly, and far too soon, on June 7, 2020. Cal was a lifelong resident of Crawfordville, Florida and an upcoming Junior at Wakulla High School, where he had already earned his certification in welding. Cal was a member of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church in Crawfordville, FL.

Cal was a great outdoorsman. As an avid offshore fisherman, Cal enjoyed countless hours fishing on "F.V. Dual Threat" with his family and friends. He loved deer hunting and doing anything else that involved the outdoors. Cal was a kind young man, the "Class Jokester" and he was loved by everyone. Cal had countless friends who already miss him terribly.

Cal is survived by his loving family, father Brian Hubmann, mother Monica Hubmann, and brother Zack Hoover; his paternal grandparents Rick and Sandy Hubmann and his maternal grandmother Martha Fojtik; his paternal aunt Terri Nettles and uncles Gary Hubmann and Roger Hubmann (and wife Sarah); his maternal aunts Kerry Prisoc (and husband Rawleigh), Angie Johnson (and husband Don), Allison Larson (and husband Jeff), and uncle Brad Fojtik (and wife Krissi), and numerous cousins and other relatives.

A Celebration of Life for family and friends will be held outdoors at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church (3609 Coastal Hwy, Crawfordville, FL 32327) on Tuesday, June 16, 2020 at 7:00 p.m. Prior to this in-person Celebration, a Memorial Mass will be Live Streaming at 5:00 p.m. due to Covid-19 restrictions:<https://facebook.com/events/s/cal-hubmann-memorial-service-l/1129535814089013/?ti=as>

“ Cal was in my class in 8th grade, and he always had a smile on his face. He was definitely a jokester...we had so much fun that year laughing while we learned together. He was such an intelligent and kind young man. My heart breaks for you.

“ Though I only met Cal once, briefly. My son adored Cal. I’ve heard countless stories about the fun and adventures they would find themselves in. And every time, my sons face would light up. I can tell that he was so special to so many. And will be missed dearly. Our sincerest condolences go out to his family and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
