

Carol Louise Gerhardt

October 28, 1945 - December 8, 2022

Carol Louise Gerhardt, 77, of Crawfordville, Florida, passed peacefully in her sleep on December 8, 2022.

Carol was a poet, an avid reader of romance and spy novels, and forever a history buff. She spent years researching our family history and was proudest of the novel she wrote on our family genealogy. A legacy never to be forgotten.

Carol was predeceased by her parents, Harold and Louise Briesacker, her two brothers, Gary and Donald Briesacker, and her son, John Gerhardt. She is survived by her brother George Briesacker, her two daughters, Amy Lashley and Annie Kendall, nine grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

A poem written by Carol Gerhardt

Once I didn't know of God's love,
On that His mercy was for me to see.
I didn't believe in miracles,
On that he could give peace to me.

One day when I was very young,
I fell and hit my head,

I didn't know of all the hands,
Working hard to keep me from death.

Alone my journey through the years,
I didn't know of all the good days.
Later I heard the wondrous stories,
And learned all of God's ways.

Now I remember all the times,
His hands touched and gave me release.
Each prayer answered with love and mercy,
And each gift a miracle that brings peace.
-Carol Gerhardt
