

CHANDLER JACKSON DAWSON

June 15, 2000 - December 29, 2023

Chandler Jackson Dawson was born June 15, 2000, in Tallahassee, Florida, to Michelle and Andrew Dawson.

In 2020, Chandler graduated of Florida State University Schools. After graduation, he enlisted into active duty in the United States Army, serving in Fairbanks, Alaska. Chandler loved Jesus, his children, fiancée, family, football, the outdoors, and serving others. On December 29th at 2:48pm, Chandler Dawson passed from this world into the precious arms of his Savior and Lord, Jesus. Chandler was a beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, father, uncle, friend, and soldier who invested selflessly in others. He would encourage, build up, and help anyone in need. He had a genuine servant heart that reflected that of Christ. At this time, we his family, ask that you remember Chandler as someone who lived joyfully and enjoyed the life God gave to him. If he knew you, he cared for you. We are grateful to our son's commitment to freedom and willingness to give everything so that we might be free. May the Lord bless you in the days ahead and always keep Jesus first because through Him, all things are possible.

Chandler is survived by his daughter, Ella Mae Grace Dawson, Fiancée, Mercedes Farmier and soon to be born son Grayson Taylor Wade Dawson; Parents, Michelle and Andy Dawson; Brothers, Keith Carraway (his wife Sierra) and Taylor Dawson; Grandparents, Priscilla and Don Dawson; a niece,

Sophia Lillian Carraway, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless extended family that Chandler loved, served, and treasured.
