

Cheryl Irene Moore

February 28, 1950 - November 4, 2024

Cheryl Moore 76, of Havana FL passed away peacefully in her sleep on June 10, 2026, after a brief battle with cancer.

Cheryl was born on Feb 28, 1950 and was chosen by Ted and Irene Smetana to be their daughter. She grew up in Portage, Wisconsin and graduated from high school in 1968 followed by Madison Area Technical College in 1969. She met the love of her life Michael Moore at Chesty's in Madison, Wisconsin and they were married on July 19, 1969. After their marriage they moved to Mayport, Florida where Mike served aboard the USS NOA.

Cheryl was well known by the community from her over 40 years of community involvement and business ventures; from the early days of Pizza Hut and Tomato Wrestling to volunteering for Relay for Life and The Humane Society or serving the lord at First Presbyterian Church of Quincy and Havana, she committed her life to serving and supporting her communities. She also enjoyed staying busy with her many interests, such as serving with Tallahassee Area Dart Association or being a founding member of the Big Bend Cribbage Club. She was always finding new adventures and friends.

Cheryl is survived by the love of her life, Mike Moore of Havana; her brother Warren Smetana (Jeanne) of Eagle Lake, Wisconsin; her children, Guy Moore (Penny) of Bainbridge, Jeremy Moore of Acworth, GA and Emily White of Tallahassee; her grandchildren Kaitlyn Moore (Aislynn), Brittany Kennedy (Ryan), Dustin Moore (Lacey), Troy White, and Cain White; and her great-grandchildren Everleigh, Drew, Hatley, Hudson, and Rowan. Cheryl was preceded in death by her parents Ted and Irene Smetana. She also leaves behind numerous close friends, community members and church family.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday June 10th at 11:00 at First Presbyterian Church in Havana.
