

Daniel Robert Cargle

June 30, 1936 - June 26, 2025

Daniel Robert Cargle, 88, of Tallahassee, FL passed away on June 26, 2025.

Daniel was born on June 30, 1936 to William Hill Cargle and Bessie Miller Cargle in Lindale, Georgia.

After receiving his High School Diploma, Mr. Cargle joined the United States Army where he proudly served and continued on into the Reserves for another six years. He spent the remainder of his career in manufacturing.

In his spare time, Mr. Cargle enjoyed woodworking, gardening, fishing, and most of all spending time with his family who he loved deeply.

Mr. Cargle is survived by his loving wife Dorothy Patricia Cargle; his children Connie Elaine Rea and Scott Thomas Cargle; and his dear grandchildren and great grandchildren, whom he adored. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his son Richard Daniel Cargle.

A Full Military Honors Service will be held on Thursday, July 3, 2025 at 11:00 A.M. and the family invites all who knew and loved Daniel to join them there. For those who can attend, please form a line on the right side of the Administration Building, where our cars will travel together down to the pavilion where the service will be held. We will leave the building promptly at 11:00 so please do not be late.

The family is being cared for by Jackie Fulford, James Sircy, and Kielah Footman of Young Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory, Tallahassee, Florida.

“ Danny was always a fine and Honorable man who loved God and his family above himself--I have no doubt he is reaping his heavenly rewards and the fruits of his labor here on earth--God please keep his family in Your loving arms as they grieve for not Danny but themselves as they continue on until they all meet again--I love you all--Bennie Jo Williams
