“ There are many good memories I have of Diane, from volunteering at DeSoto Trail, which is where we met, to taking the kids on many, many outings together, to having Bunko parties.

There was one time a copy of a cookbook called "A Dinner A Day", so we could make dinner together over the phone. We had a lot of fun with it, and found some good recipes.

For a short time we thought it would be fun to mow lawns for some extra cash. Diane came up with the perfect name for our business, "Babes with Blades". I still laugh at that one

Diane was a thoughtful person with a wonderful sense of humor. She always went above and beyond to support friends who were struggling. We will miss her.

Don, Austin, and Alexis,

I am very sorry for your loss.
