Elenore “Ellie” Bouteiller

December 4, 1937 – October 17, 2025

Elenore “Ellie” Bouteiller, 87, of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away peacefully on October 17, 2025. Ellie was born on December 4, 1937, in Brooklyn, New York, to Blanche and Louis Zarembo, and grew up in the Bronx.

Ellie was a dedicated registered nurse for 40 years. She began her nursing career at the Fordham School of Nursing, graduating in 1961. Throughout her career, she cared for countless patients with compassion and professionalism, retiring in 2002 from William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Michigan.

While in Virginia, Ellie met her former husband, Alfred Bouteiller II, a serviceman in the U.S. Navy. Together they moved to Maryland, where she lovingly raised their three children. In 1989, Ellie moved with her eldest daughter to Michigan, where she played a special role in helping to raise her granddaughters, Robin and Rebecca.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her five brothers, Edward Kaye, Henry Kryzwecki, Larry Kryzwecki, John Kryzwecki, Leon Zarembo; and her former husband, Alfred Bouteiller II.

Ellie is survived by her three children, Debra Bouteiller, Alfred Bouteiller III (Susan), and Cathy Kyle (Ernie); her grandchildren, Robin Patterson (Clinton), Cody Kyle (Alexa), Rebecca Salyer, and Sarah Kyle; and her great-grandchildren, Blake Salyer and Anna Webb.

Ellie will be remembered for her strength, humor, and lifelong devotion to caring for others—both in her nursing career and within her family. Her legacy of compassion, resilience, and love will continue to live on through all those who were fortunate to know her.

Ms. Bouteiller is under the care of Jackie Fulford and James Sircy of Young Fulford Funeral Home, Tallahassee, Florida. 850.610.4444
