“ I first met Eric during the Sunland summer program in 1996. We both worked at the Ranch as ABE workers. He was always smiling and joked around. Little did I know that just a few short years later, we became family. Ryan and I are still in disbelief that he's gone. We both know that Eric is now in heaven sharing his infectious laughter and lighting up the golden roads with his beautiful smile. He's living it up with Uncle Bill, Uncle Dannis, Grandpa Ellis and Aunt Bobbie.
