“ Granddaddy always greeted me with, “Hey, baby!” I could always sit and talk with him about anything. We had countless talks at the kitchen table and on the front porch. He always enjoyed making his soup and sending me home with plenty. Some of my youngest memories are drinking strawberry drinks at his store long ago & learning how to ride & care for horses. We enjoyed trips to Hardee’s for coffee and biscuits anytime I was home to visit. I will cherish every single memory and tell my children how special and loving you were to me. Give granny and daddy a big hug. I love you.
