

Gregory "Greg" A. Taylor

August 12, 1970 - December 31, 2019

Gregory "Greg" A. Taylor passed away December 31, 2019 at his home. He was born to his parents, James Vernon Taylor and his mother Ilene (Taylor) Belongia, in Vero Beach, Florida on August 12, 1970. Greg moved to Tallahassee in 1988 and spent a career in Land Surveying. More recently, his true passion was in providing care for the love of his life, his wife Molly Taylor, who passed away on November 29, 2019. He took great care of her and she loved having him there with her.

Throughout his life, Greg loved to fish and was amazingly skilled in wood working.

Mr. Taylor will be terribly missed by his family and is survived by his mother Ilene Belongia and step father Tim, two loving sisters Dawn Gordon and Christie Martin and her husband Tim, by his two brothers Daniel Taylor and David Taylor, and one precious grandson Gary Diskerud. As mentioned Greg is recently predeceased by his wife, Mary "Molly" Mitchell Taylor.

The family has chosen to celebrate Greg's life privately together. Greg will join his wife in burial at the Tallahassee National Cemetery.

The family is being assisted by Skip Young.

“ Mostly, I remember Greg as a kind, loving and bright presence in my life. He took really good care of my father, Bob Mitchell, before his death in 2015 at the ripe age of 92. Greg's light has passed too soon, but I know well that he had a host of friends, Angels and The Lord ready to gather him into loving arms. My wish now is for the Holy Spirit and Comforter to come to those of us who so deeply mourn his loss, bringing us all the strength to honor his life by carrying on in his own brave and cheerful example.
