

Greyson Channing Kimball

June 24, 1997 - July 7, 2023

Greyson Channing Kimball was born on June 24, 1997, and was called home on July 7, 2023. In his 26 years Grey, touched so many lives with his joy, his love, and his amazing strength.

Grey had many health challenges that he faced in his life but despite the pain and discomfort he always managed to find a way to bring joy and peace to those around him. He trusted God to see him through with peace, strength, and grace.

Grey loved many things, especially Grammy's banana pudding but his main love was music. Music got him through many hard times. The song "Everything's Gonna Be Alright" was his mantra. He would give you that beautiful smile and you just knew everything was going to be alright.

God took home a very special angel that will be greatly missed! Although his time here was short, his impact was immense. Those who were blessed to get to truly know him were touched in ways words can not - adequately describe.

He is survived by his mother, Sabrina Kimball of Tallahassee, Florida; his father Frederick Cantu Kimball of Stephenville, Texas; and his sister Addilyn Sofia Kimball of Tallahassee, Florida and numerous Aunts, Uncles, and cousins.

Greyson "You shined your light into the darkness so others could see!"

Saudade

“ Mike & I were so blessed to know Grayson! He is and always will be a ray of sunshine! Mike would take so much joy in being able to treat him. He would come home from work and tell me how blessed he was to work on him because he has a special relationship with God. Whenever I was around Grayson his presence exuded love and peace. You are an amazing mother, Sabrina! The greatest achievement of a mother is to have your child get to heaven. As painful as it is for his loss, there's no greater joy than to know he is in heaven with Grammy, your Dad, and Jesus! We love you so much and rejoice in our friendship. You and Grayson will always be in our thoughts and prayers! ❤️❤️❤️
Love, Mike & Jean Nixon

“ What an amazing gift it was to stand by your mom as you entered heaven gates. I only wish I could have seen you run into the arms of Jesus and Grammy. Your precious life had a powerful effect on so many, me included. I watched for many years your mom's sacrificial love and care for you that gave me a new meaning of living out the Gospel of Jesus Christ. She is my hero and it is because of you that she was such a witness to so many. I was blessed to have been called to serve you and your mom and will miss you immensely!

“ My life was enriched by the opportunity to meet, get to know and serve Greyson. The first time I met him I knew I would like him— he was eating a peanut butter cup! No matter what he was going through or how much pain he was in, his smile would come on his face and makes us all feel better. I will miss him.

I have many fond memories of Greyson. His smile ~ much discussed and well worthy of the hype ~ is etched into my memory forever. Big, sweet, innocent eyes, and a sense of humor that you could feel; observing and giggling to himself sometimes. He loved his mother with a depth, I believe, that transcended the normal limits of child-to-parent unions, and she in-turn doted on him and understood his emotions in ways that were beautifully moving, close to telepathic. I will always remember his strength of spirit, his ability to overcome incredible struggles and show up with a grin; living in the moment in ways he may not have been able to talk about, but which he lived and expressed by example.

“ You had my heart from the first moment I saw you. I love you so much! You taught me so much about unconditional love. How do I live without you! I miss you! My head knows you are at peace and with Grammy and Grandpa and that brings me joy. But my heart longs to be with you. I can't wait until we can all be together again. Saudade

Grayson I remember the first time I met you. Your sweet Angle brought you in for a hair cut. I was so jealous of your beautiful curly brown hair, and your big brown eyes and beautiful smile! Your sweet soul was a gift to all who was able to know you! I will miss you so much! But I know your with Grammy and laughing and singing! I will see you both again one day! Until then please watch over mom and let her know you and Grammy will watch over her! I love you Grayson! George, Peanut, you know what I am saying so does mom! 😂😭❤️❤️🥺
