

Jack Hsu-Hsiung Kang

September 15, 1938 - July 14, 2021

Jack Hsu-Hsiung Kang was born on September 15, 1938 in Chiayi, Taiwan to his mother Qei-En Kang. He passed away on July 14, 2021 at the age of 82.

After marrying and immigrating to the United States with his wife Sandra, Jack pursued an extensive education and earned a Masters of Physics from North Texas University, a Masters in Physics from Florida State University, and a Masters in Metallurgy from the University of Illinois. He settled in Tallahassee, Florida with his family and worked as a civil engineer for the Florida Department of Transportation before his retirement.

In his spare time, Jack enjoyed arguing with his children, tending to his extensive garden, watching movies, and investing.

Jack is survived by his loving wife, Sandra Kang; children, Nancy Meier, Mark Kang, Linda Armstrong, and Diana Kang; and grandchildren, Connor and Emma Armstrong. He was preceded in death by his mother, Qei-En Kang.

James Sircy and Jackie Fulford of Young Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory are assisting the family. (850) 610-4444 YoungFulford.com
