

James L. Faulkner

May 4, 1947 - July 31, 2021

James L. Faulkner, 74 of Perry/Steinhatchee, went to be with his Lord and Savior on Aug. 1, 2021, following a brief battle with cancer.

Born on April 4, 1947, to Juanita Dubose and Chandler "C. L." Faulkner, James was a lifelong resident of Taylor County.

During his full and colorful life on earth, James made a living both on land and at sea, working as a pipe fitter/welder and commercial fisherman/crabber.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Juanita Dubose, father C.L. Faulkner, and a sister Pat.

He is survived by his wife of 19 years Lisa, 14 year-old granddaughter, Bella, grandson, Alec "Titan" Parker, one sister Marilyn Pickles, stepdaughter Kera Ellison Parker (Shawn) and unofficial daughter/fishing partner Amy Cope.

James doted on his granddaughter "Bug" (Bella), loved fishing, cooking for anyone and everyone who would join him for a meal so he could tell stories and jokes.

He was a longtime member of the Perry Elks Lodge, a Baptist by faith and owner/operator of Faulkner Lawn Service for the past 17 years.
