“ Once upon a time , a little boy named John Reuben had a dream. Of horses, blue skies and pastures green. Of country roads, sunny days and a cool, peaceful stream. This dream will come again for you Daddy in heaven. Jesus is waiting there for you with outstretched arms and he will say, "Welcome home, John Reuben." Until we meet again in heaven. I love you, Daddy. Your loving daughter, Lisa.

So beautiful! He loved all of his children and grandchildren so much. He only wished he could be with you more! I see from what you wrote that he passed on his love for life, love animals and just good old happy life! That is why Reuben never met a stranger! He was and is a special man one I will never forget him. I am being selfish in wanting him to still want him here so I can talk to him but I know in my heart it was was time to let him be out of pain! So thank you Lisa for letting me have your Dad as my best friend!
