

Kayden Alexander Browder

May 19, 2010 - October 11, 2023

Kayden Alexander Browder

Kayden Alexander Browder was born in Fort Walton Beach, Florida, on May 19, 2010. He moved to Tallahassee in 2014 and passed away far too soon at the young age of 13, on October 11, 2023. Kayden was in the 8th Grade at Cobb Middle School.

Kayden was a typical teenage boy. He spent most of his spare time “gaming,” and lounging around in his favorite hoodie and basketball shorts. He loved picking on his younger siblings, and he found all younger kids, in general, to be annoying. When he wasn’t playing a video game, he really enjoyed reading and Anime was what he enjoyed reading the most. Although his favorite music was performed by musical artist Eminem, he also had a talent for music himself. Last year he played the acoustic guitar and this year he chose to play violin in the school orchestra.

Kayden is survived by his loving mother, Jessica M. Walden; sister Arabella Jean Haddock and brother Zaiden Andrew Clemmons; his father Daniel Robert Williams; and many special friends. Kayden was preceded in death by his grandmother Rebecca Jean Ashe.

Kayden was a wonderful young boy who would have, no doubt, grown into an amazing young man. He will be forever missed and in the hearts of his family and those who were blessed to have him as a friend. Fly high, and dance in the sky, mamma's little angel.

“ He was such an amazing boy. He took care of his family and loved them like no one else could. His memory will forever be cherished. I miss him more than anything in the world. He made me smile every time I saw him. He made the heavy moments, feel like nothing. I didn't see him often, but when I did, Lord knows, Kayden was someone I truly loved.

“ He sat in behind me in English class. The day before he passed I asked him for a piece of paper. I hold that paper close to me, he was a sweet boy. He was quiet but he had a loud heart.
