“ Kelly Powers was the most special person, a talented counselor and intuitive, who I have known for many decades. I am so grateful for the opportunities I had to learn from Kelly, especially over the recent years. I feel much sadness and grief, but know that he would tell me to "stay in the present moment". Hard to process the present moment without Kelly in the world. I hope we can celebrate his life soon, but for now I feel much sadness for our loss.
