

LINDA JEAN THOMPSON

September 11, 1940 - December 20, 2024

Linda "LIN" Jean Thompson, was born on September 11, 1940 to Cleatis Wilder Thompson and Elizabeth Jean Stilwell Thompson, in Evansville, Indiana. Although she lived several places throughout her lifetime, including Ohio, Indiana and Texas, fifteen years ago she moved to Tallahassee and has since called this her home.

Lin was an amazing mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend. She never met a stranger and tried to make a positive impact on everyone she met. Lin loved to sew, knit, quilt, and garden. She also loved all animals and was willing to take in whatever animal needed a home. Lin was a member of the St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral in Tallahassee. She absolutely loved her church and her church family.

Lin is survived by her son, Noah Thompson (wife Vanessa); her grandson Joshua Neumann (wife Kayla); her great-grandson Carter Neumann; brother Bruce Thompson and his wife; brothers-in-law, Bob Nichols and Chris Polischuck; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, and sisters Peggy Lou Thompson, Pat Nichols and Marsha Polischuck.

Everyone who knew Lin, knew that she was quite the spitfire. Small but mighty. She liked to say "dynamite comes in small packages" and that certainly applied to her. She was deeply loved and will be missed by all that knew her. And to use Lin's own famous words, "Ciao for Now!"

A Celebration of Lin's life will take place at a later date in Columbus, Ohio. The family will update this obituary to include the service information once it is planned.

The family is under the care of Jackie Fulford and James Sircy of Young Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory, Tallahassee, Florida. 850.610.4444
