“ RIP Boston Matt! I still can't believe THAT much life just stopped and disappeared. Your absence has been alarming. I know you've GOTTA be pissed too!

You were the realest MF, and a badass friend! You are madly missed, w/an extra side of sadness. Cause I never even thought to think about you not being here.

I hope your spirit travels without the weight of sadness, cause you are also madly loved! xoxoxox

“ You never forget the neighborhood crew you grew up with. Matt, we all used to play and terrorize the town and would still chat once and a while as we got older. I wish you well and will still continue thinking of you and your family. Hopefully we'll all see you on the other side and you can show us our new hood.

“ Happy birthday my love. I will always cherish our time. And I will always be thankful of our memories. Not a day goes by I do not think of you. Every where I go reminds me of you. “ There are no words that will ever describe how much Mom and Dad miss you.

In memory forever with love:

You are found, our sorrow of not knowing where you are eased knowing your pain is no more.

You are missed every hour of every day. The memory of you will always be in our hearts every day of our lives.

You are now and for ever home at peace surrounded with our love.

*I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new.
I thought of you yesterday and days before that too.
I think of you in silence as I often speak your name.
All I have are memories and your picture in a frame
Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part.
God has you in His keeping. I have you in my heart.*

Rest my son, Mom and Dad forever love you.

Happy Birthday with all our love

You were so happy this day. Changes were going to be made, your future was looking so bright. I can still hear your voice and that Florida accent that use to blow my mind. Our last conversation plays over and over in my mind. Love you, Matthew.
