Melaney Jane McLean ^[SEP]

January 6, 1968 – August 18, 2025

It is with love and gratitude that we remember the life of Melaney Jane McLean who passed away peacefully on August 18, 2025 at the age of 57.

Laney had a sparkle that could light up any room. She had a way of making people feel truly seen, heard, and loved, whether through her open arms, a listening ear, or a few perfectly chosen words of encouragement. She poured her heart into caring for others and was always ready to help. Laney also had a deep love for plants and could make anything bloom, filling her spaces with life and beauty that reflected her own spirit. Intelligent, thoughtful, and full of joy. She made sure no one ever left her presence without feeling cared for.

As a mother, she not only poured her love into her own children but also took their friends under her wing, treating them as if they were part of the family. Her home was a place of laughter, acceptance, and open arms.

She is survived by her husband, Ken Walser. her children, Teddy LeJeune and her husband Jesse Stembridge with their children Gabe Davis and Reme Stembridge; Zachary LeJeune and his wife Lauren LeJeune with their children

Maddox LeJeune and Rowan LeJeune; and Avery Lynch and her husband Addison Lynch with their son Archie Lynch. Her sister Tina Stone and husband Jason Stone; Her uncles; Reid Edenfield, Brent Edenfield, Gary McLean and Terry McLean. Her aunt; Susan C. Lawson. She is also survived by her father, John R. McLean, and Gwynne Parmelee; her mother, Deborah Edenfield McLean, and William D. Schlottermiller.

Mrs. McLean was preceded in death by her grandparents; David H. Edenfield & Martha Edenfield, and Nathan P. McLean & Eva Faye McLean. Her first husband/ children's father; Danny LeJeune.

Instead of sorrow, a celebration. Honor Laney's life with stories, smiles, and Prosecco. Her family invites friends and loved ones to a celebration of life on August 31, at 2 PM at the Tallahassee Garden Club to honor her memory in the way she lived, warm, welcoming, and full of joy.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to Laney's favorite charity - The Innocence Project, as a way to honor her generous spirit.

She will be dearly missed, but her laughter, kindness, and light will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Mrs. McLean is under the care of Jackie Fulford and James Sircy of Young Fulford Funeral Home, Tallahassee, Florida. 850.610.4444

“ I truly missed the days working with Laney at CAPS. Proposal submissions and project management are pain-in-the-butt for most faculties including me. But Laney made everything run so smoothly and ironed out the wrinkles for me. I can't even remember how many times I gave her last minute-notices but she never complained and solved the issues which boost my mood during those difficult times. Her office was always clean, organized and beautifully decorated. After she left CAPS, I still had lunch with her from time to time. She shared her illness with me but always optimistic and still care for me like she did at CAPS. I prayed for her after she told me, and still cannot believe she is gone. She will be deeply missed by her friends and colleagues with her caring and big smile.
