Pamala Jean Burgess, 59, of Bainbridge, GA, was born to Bennie and Clara Darou on October 2, 1961 in Alexandria Bay, NY. She passed away in Tallahassee, FL on November 5, 2020.

Pamala loved making crafts, painting, the symbol of double hearts intertwined, painting her fingernails purple (her favorite color) and her rescued four legged family members - two dogs and 1 cat. She also came to love dragonflies following the loss of her father, wanting to believe that when she saw one it was her dad flying close to her.

The family will gather together privately to celebrate the life Pamala Burgess lived.
