“ I guess I can quit waiting to hear from you again now Pat. I was so hoping I would not read this, I felt so encouraged by our conversation the last time you called me! You sounded so much better and you said you were, I have been waiting so you could regain some more of your strength back, and seeing this just broke my heart. But hopefully you are in a much better place now. As we discussed several times before, it was amazing how we became friends so fast. And just as you said I had touched your life and I meant so much to you, it was indeed the same way with me. We both marveled about how God had brought us together in this lifetime and we both knew it was indeed God that did it. You will always have a place in my heart Pat Rushing and I wouldn't have missed it for the world. I'm sorry you were so sick that you had to have a doctor but I am very happy that God led you to call and I was the one who answered the phone that day! I love you dearly. ❤️🙏
