

Paul Wayman Brand

August 3, 1948 - August 12, 2019

Paul Wayman Brand, 71, of Tallahassee, Florida died on August 12, 2019 at Big Bend Hospice House. He was born on August 3, 1948 to Dorothy "Dot" Pearl Studdard Brand and Clarence Cleveland "Dick" Brand, Jr., and was the oldest of 3 brothers.

Known by the many who loved him as a charismatic, unconventional and kind music artist, Paul lived a life full of remarkable experiences. From traveling the world as a musician for the Department of Defense to the many hair-raising shenanigans he got into with his lifelong buddies, Paul's colorful stories were anything but boring. He was a brilliant guitarist and singer who collected many fans over the years, but he always remained humble. An animal lover and 50 year vegetarian, Paul's best friend was his beloved dog, Bean.

He is lovingly remembered by his wife, Marie Mattox; mother, Dot Brand; daughter and son-in-law, Lorin Brand and Rayford Taylor; grandson Benjamin Taylorbrand; stepdaughters Megan Shelfer and Cassidy Clare; brothers Glenn and Terry Brand; and countless friends. Paul was predeceased in death by his father, Dick Brand. The family would like to thank Lori Kline, Margie Walker, Debbie Gibson and Katherine Viker for their love and tireless support during Paul's last days, as well as the incredible people at both Tallahassee Memorial Hospital and Big Bend Hospice.

A service will be held at Goodwood Museum and Gardens on Thursday, August 15, 2019 at 6:00 pm. The family will host a Celebration of Paul's life immediately following the service in the Carriage House at Goodwood.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to MusiCares, an organization providing a safety net to musicians in time of need. www.musicares.org

The family is being assisted by Skip Young and Jackie Fulford of Young~Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory.

I've been heartbroken for a week now. I'm glad I got to see and hug Paul in August when I was there in Tallahassee. Touring in a band with you, playing for all those soldiers overseas and to many people in Tallahassee and surrounding states- we all had a special bond - we were a family, and this loss feels just like I lost a close blood relative. I'll never forget you Paul, and my heart goes out to your family.

I met Paul sometime in the summer of 1961, when we moved to Glenway Drive, named after his brother Glenn and him ... back then we called him Wayman. On Sundays we would play football in a vacant lot in the neighborhood. Wayman was always the star. Through the years we were always acquaintances, I followed his music and tried to hear him whenever possible. In later years we both lived in Indianhead and I saw him and talked with him a good bit. Paul, new a lot of people and he will be sorely missed. My deepest sympathy goes out to Glenn and Terry and their families. God bless you.

So very sad to hear this. Paul had an infectious personality, and was quite possibly the sincerely nicest human being I've ever met in my life. I've lost 2 brother myself and miss them all the time even though it's been many years since their passing. My condolences to Glen and the entire family.
