“ From all the gang at Paul Davis restoration sending condolence to the surviving family members. As a project manager I delt with him personally and helped each other. I just mentioned his name recently to another installer that I had not run into him in travels. A loss of another meticulous builder is what is felt to our community RIP Brother.

“ We had the pleasure of getting to know Randy when he did all the trim work on our kitchen when he was with McManus Kitchen and Bath in 2019. We loved his sense of humor, his musical tastes, his many stories and especially the love and pride he felt for his daughter. We have an example of his artistry every time we walk into our kitchen.
