

Robert Harding Lee JR

December 11, 1953 - November 25, 2024

Spanish

Robert Harding Lee Jr, 70, falleció el 25 de noviembre de 2024. Robert vivió una vida llena, rodeado por su querida familia y comunidad. Robert es sobrevivido por su amada esposa, Norma; hijos, Oscar, Marlon Mariona, Clardin y Robert Alexander Lee; y por sus nietes, Libni, Brittany, Christian, Maria, Sofia, Kiara, Isabella, Victoria, Ariana, Camilla, Antonio, Knox y Robert Alejandro; y hermanas, Virginia Lee, Susan Lee Guenzer y Cathy Lee.

Robert nació en Queens, Nueva York el 11 de diciembre de 1953. Robert era maravillosamente altruista, siempre dando de sí mismo a su familia, sin condición, y ayudando a aquellos con necesidad como pudiese. Criado en Pennsylvania y Connecticut, donde se terminó de la secundaria, Robert poseía una mente aguda, y se graduó del colegio universitario Franklin y Marshall. Robert sobresalía en las matemáticas y luego se convertiría en un actuario certificado.

Robert se mudó a Chicago donde empezó la carrera de actuario, y donde pronto conocería al amor de su vida, Norma. Robert ayudó a Norma y sus dos hijos a mudarse a los Estados Unidos de Honduras. Pocos años después adoptaría y le darían la bienvenida a su hija Clardin a la familia. De ahí la familia se mudó a California, donde Robert y Norma fueron felizmente sorprendidos por el nacimiento de su último hijo, Robert Alexander.

Robert mudo la familia de vuelta al estado de Illinois, esta vez a Springfield, donde vivieron felices por 13 años. Por fin, terminaron en Tallahassee donde Robert se colocó con el Departamento de Regulación de Seguros por 20 años.

A través de su vida, Robert demostró desinterés en lo material, dándole mucho a su comunidad. Fundó la educación de innumerables familias y amigos en Honduras y fue instrumental en ayudar a muchos más a emigrar al país. Robert donaba con generosidad a varias organizaciones benéficas y mandaba remesas a familia con necesidad.

La familia tendrá un servicio de despedida y celebración el 4 de enero de 2025. Tomará sitio en el parque Dorothy B. Owen en Tallahassee, Florida a la 1 de la tarde ET.

Robert Harding Lee Jr., 70, passed away on November 25th, 2024. Robert lived a full life, surrounded by his adoring family and community. Robert is survived by: his loving wife, Norma; children, Oscar, Marlon Mariona, Clardin, and Robert Alexander Lee; grandchildren, Libni, Brittany, Christian, Mex, Kiara, Sofia, Isabella, Victoria, Ariana, Camilla, Antonio, Knox, and Robert Alejandro; and sisters, Virginia Lee, Susan Lee Guenzer, and Cathy Lee.

Robert was born in Queens, NY on December 11, 1953. Robert was wonderfully altruistic, always giving of himself to his family, unconditionally, and helping those in need however he could. Raised in Pennsylvania and Connecticut, where he graduated from Conestoga High School, he possessed a gifted mind and graduated from Franklin & Marshall College. He excelled in mathematics and would go on to become a certified actuary.

Robert moved to Chicago where he began his early career as an actuary and where he would soon meet the love of his life, Norma. Robert helped Norma and her two children, Oscar and Marlon, move to the United States from Honduras. A few years later, Robert and Norma adopted and welcomed a daughter, Clardin, to the family. From there, the family moved from Chicago to California, where Robert and Norma were happily surprised by the birth of their last son, Robert Alexander. Robert moved the family back to Illinois, this time Springfield, where they lived happily for 13 years. Finally, the family landed in Tallahassee, FL where Robert landed a position with the Florida Department of Insurance Regulation, where he worked over 20 years.

Throughout his life, Robert showed true selflessness, giving much to his community. He funded the education of countless family members and friends in Honduras and was instrumental in helping many family members immigrate to the US. Robert also gave generously to various charities as well as sent remittances to family members in need. The family will hold a funeral service and celebration of life on January 4, 2025. It will take place at Dorothy B. Owen Park in Tallahassee, Florida at 1 p.m. ET.

The family is being cared for by Jackie Fulford and James Sircy of Young Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory, Tallahassee, FL. 850.610.4444
