

Sasha Monique Molina

August 24, 1991 - May 26, 2020

(English y Español)

Sasha Monique Molina was born in Miami, Florida on August 24, 1991. Sasha transferred to Florida State University to continue her education in Editing, Writing and Media with a graduation of December 2020. After graduation, one of her life goals was to relocate to Australia.

Sasha was an animal lover, a feminist, an environmentalist who absolutely loved taking photos of all the things that brought joy to her life. Becoming a "World Traveler" gave her countless opportunities to learn & research different cultures. It gave her the opportunity to photograph some of the most stunning sites throughout the world. After her first European adventure with her soul sister Brianna, she described her life as "Perfect." One of Sasha's most memorable trips was a solo 10-week backpacking tour through South East Asia that forever changed her in the most incredible way. Sasha's last adventure to Hawaii with her friend Sabrina left a lasting impression, she bragged about the beauty Hawaii had to offer and wished to return someday with her family.

Sasha's beautiful smile was one in a million and felt by everyone. She had the ability to brighten even the darkest of days when someone needed it the most. No matter the circumstances, Sasha was always there to lend an ear, emotions, and company. Sasha had a passion for music. Her iPod went wherever she went. She loved discovering new music and attending her favorite concerts. She loved to read, sketch, and learn about history. Sasha loved everything life had to offer her. She was a strong-minded woman who was fearless, independent, and believed strongly in equality for all. She was loyal, committed, determined, smart and one hell of a force to be reckoned with. Sasha loved so many & was loved by so many more.

For those who knew Sasha, knew her family was everything and how she cherished every single moment spent with each one of them. Her pride and joy were her two brothers and her baby cousins. She loved spending quality time & taking photos with her family. Family vacations, holidays and road trips were what made her the happiest. No one loved family as much as she did.

Sasha is survived by her mother Claudia Ceballos and her step-father, Luis Cedeño, her amazing brothers Pedro Molina & Jonathan Ceballos, her grandmother “Abby” Luz Dary, Tia Patty and Caco, Tia Negra, Tia Amparo and Tio Wilson, Tia Betty and family and Tia Sady and family. Her cousins Paula and Jorge, Carlos and Irem, Jr and Christine, Vanessa, Tati, Stephanie, Cristian, Natalia, Gianni, Aidan, Adrian, Eliana, her beloved dog Banksy and cat Luna.

“She will be the one standing by the ocean with the sun in her hair, and a smile like a love song rising from the sea”

“Til the Next Adventure, XOXO”

Obituario de Sasha Monique Molina

Sasha Monique Molina, nació en Miami, Florida, el 24 de agosto de 1991. Su deseo era graduarse en Edición, Escritura y Medios, en la Universidad Estatal de la Florida, en diciembre de este año y luego de ello, trasladarse a Australia.

Era una chica amante de los animales. Una feminista y ambientalista, a quien le encantaba tomar fotos de todas las cosas que alegraban su vida. Convertirse en "viajera del mundo", le permitió aprender e investigar diferentes culturas. También capturar con su cámara, algunos de los sitios más maravillosos del mundo. Luego de su primera aventura en Europa, junto a Brianna, "su hermana del alma", Sasha describió su vida como "Perfecta". Otro de sus viajes memorables, lo realizó sola y durante 10 semanas por el sudeste asiático. De una manera increíble, esta experiencia cambió su vida para siempre.

Conocer Hawái, junto a su amiga Sabrina, dejó en ella una impresión duradera, por la belleza que allí encontró. Tanto, que deseaba regresar algún día con su familia. Su hermosa sonrisa, era una en un millón y todos captaban eso enseguida. En ella tenía la capacidad de alegrar los días más oscuros y la vida de las personas, cuando más lo necesitaban. Sin importar las circunstancias, Sasha siempre estaba allí, lista para escuchar y acompañar. Tenía una enorme pasión por la música. Su iPod por eso, la seguía adonde ella fuera. Le encantaba descubrir canciones nuevas y asistir a muchos conciertos. También le apasionaba leer, dibujar y aprender sobre historia. Sasha amaba todo lo que la vida tenía para ofrecerle. Era una mujer de mente fuerte, valiente, independiente y que creía firmemente en la igualdad para todos. Era leal, comprometida, decidida, inteligente y de una fuerza determinante. Sasha amaba a muchos y era amada por muchos más.

Quienes conocían a Sasha sabían que, para ella, su familia lo era todo y que apreciaba todos los momentos que pasaba con cada uno de sus seres queridos. Los viajes en familia y por carretera, eran algo que producía en ella mucha felicidad. A tal punto, que procuraba siempre dejarlos plasmados en fotografías. Su orgullo y alegría, eran sus dos hermanos y sus pequeños primos. En resumidas cuentas, nadie amaba a la familia tanto como Sasha.

A ella le sobreviven su madre, Claudia Ceballos y Luis Cedeño, sus increíbles hermanos, Pedro Molina y Jonathan Ceballos, su abuela "Abby", Luz Dary, su Tía Patty y Caco, la Tía Negra, la Tía Amparo, el Tío Wilson, la Tía Betty y sus hijos. También la Tía Sady y su familia. Sus primos, Paula y Jorge, Carlos e Irem, Jr y Christine, Vanessa, Tati, Stephanie, Cristian, Natalia, Gianni, Aidan, Adrian y Eliana. Igual Bansky, su amado perro y Luna, su gata.

“Como una canción de amor que emerge del océano, estarás siempre de pie...

con tu hermosa sonrisa y con el sol en tu cabello, frente al mar”

"Hasta la próxima aventura, XOXO"

“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Sasha's passing. I have a lot of cherished memories growing up with her from our high school days to our mid 20s. She always welcomed me with big hugs, and her aura was always filled with lots of fun and passion. We were both virgos, loved to dance and travel. I admired how open she was, and glad our paths crossed. <33

“ I can vividly remember the first time meeting you in Vegas with all your friends. You all instantly made me feel part of the group like we had known each other since day 1. You brought that energy and good vibes that never let me forget you since that day. Being able to share the same love for edm during that trip was memorable. I'm so glad we stayed friends thru social media thru out the years and I was able to get inspired by you and your adventures. Thank you for being a friend.

“ I worked with Sasha for about a year. It was a lot of fun and she was very good at her job. We always had a fun relationship where we were both sassy to each other all the time haha. That was the best part of our relationship, just always messing with each other. Sasha was a light in the room just with her personality. She was super talented as well in all the art endeavors she did as well. I remember her doing a lot of girls' makeup all the time because she was really good at it. Sasha was awesome, funny and extremely talented and she will be missed!! My love and prayers to her family <3

“ Sasha was in my life only for a short while but to say her impact was deep and profound would be an understatement. Her smile, energy and joy radiated every room she entered and she never ceased to bring a smile to everyone present. I'm thankful God brought her into my life even just for a short while. Her laugh and big gorgeous smile will always stay with me. Sending so much love and prayers for peace to the familia. Enviando amor y paz a la familia que crió una mujer tan aventurera y feroz. Siempre la recordaremos con mucho amor.

“ I first met Sasha when she was in elementary school, she was one of my daughter’s friends. I always loved when Sasha came over to play or came to birthday parties, I always called her ChaCha. She was sweet and adorable with those big dimples, sparkling eyes & always that smile. She was also such a smart & funny kid, she had an adult-sized personality in a little kid’s body! My heart is broken for her mother, her brothers, her family & her friends. I wanted to extend my deepest sympathy & tell you that I’ll never forget ChaCha. I’ll hold close the sweet & happy memories I have of her 💜
